

- Be connected with over 50 businesses representing over $400 million in delivery sales worldwide
- Monthly conference calls to interact with delivery service owners
- Host your own conference call for our industry to listen and answer questions from the RMDA members.
- Have access to our membership mailing list
- Attend our convention at the Palms Hotel & Casino March 8th – 10th in Las Vegas, NV
 - Mingle at the cocktail party with over 50 qualified leads
 - Have a display booth on our convention floor to show our members your products and/or services
 - Have at least 10 minutes of podium speaking time to give a sales presentation to our entire convention
 - Enjoy catered breakfasts, snacks, lunches and dinners with delivery service owners
 - Dine at our formal dinner after the convention meetings are over with members that you have now formed a relationships

HOW?

BECOME A VENDOR TO THE RMDA!

Vendors Membership Tier Levels

THE MASTER VENDOR $5000

The Master Vendor will be entitled to a 10 minutes speaking position during the cocktail party, formal dinner party, and one breakfast. This membership will also include two additional people for the vendor to attend the convention at no additional cost. They will be entitled to their presentation time at the convention and their vendor table during the show. Recognition in the convention book with the vendor's logo and a paragraph about them. This membership also entitles this vendor to one conference call where all members and non-rmda members can call in and find out about this vendor and what they can do for them. This vendor will be on any/all marketing and promotional material produced for the show and throughout the year including any/all email campaigns.

$2,000 Platinum Membership

This vendor will have the choice to host one of the Following Events:

a. Cocktail Party (1)

The cocktail party is the first meeting of all the RMDA Companies who attend the event. This is our meet and greet event prior to the beginning of the convention. The date of this event is March 8th, 2009 at 5:30pm. This Membership will also include two additional people for the vendor to attend the convention at no additional cost. Furthermore, this vendor will be granted 15 minutes of speaking time at the cocktail party as well as their presentation time at the convention and their vendor table during the show. Recognition in the convention book with the vendor's logo and a paragraph about them. This membership also entitles this vendor to one conference call where all members and non-rmda members can call in and find out about this vendor and what they can do for them.

b. Formal Dinner (1)

This is our Formal Dinner event after day one of our convention meeting. The date of this event is March 9th, 2009 at 5:30 pm. This membership will also include two additional people for the vendor to attend the convention at no additional cost. Furthermore, this vendor will be granted 15 minutes of speaking time at the dinner party as well as their presentation time at the convention and their vendor table during the show. Recognition in the convention book with the vendor's logo and a paragraph about them. This membership also entitles this vendor to one conference call where all members and non-rmda members can call in and find out about this vendor and what they can do for them.

$1,500 Gold Membership

This Vendor will have the choice to Host one of the Following Events:

a. Breakfast (Two breakfasts available for sponsorship)

One breakfast will be at 8:00am on March 9th, 2009 the other will be at 9:00 am March 10, 2009. This Membership will also include a second person for the vendor to attend the Convention at no additional cost. Furthermore, this vendor will be granted 15 minutes of speaking time at Breakfast as well as their presentation time at the convention and their vendor table during the show. Recognition in the convention book with the vendor's logo and a paragraph about them. This membership also entitles this vendor to one conference call where all members and non-rdma members can call in and find out about this vendor and what they can do for them.

b. Lunch (1)

The Lunch will be on March 9th, 2009 at 12:30 pm. This Membership will also include a second person for the vendor to attend the convention at no additional cost. Furthermore, this vendor will be granted 15 minutes of speaking time at the lunch, as well as their presentation time at the convention and their vendor table during the show. Recognition in the convention book with the vendor's logo and a paragraph about them. This membership also entitles this vendor to one conference call where all members and non-rdma members can call in and find out about this vendor and what they can do for them.

$1,200 Silver Membership

This Vendor will have the choice to Host one of two Break Sessions

The break sessions are usually a mid morning or mid afternoon break where snacks are served and RDS owners mingle with one another. This membership will also include a second person for the vendor to attend the convention at no additional cost. Furthermore, this vendor will be granted 5 minutes of speaking time at the break as well as their presentation time at the convention and their vendor table during the show. Recognition in the convention book with the vendor's logo and a paragraph about them. This membership also entitles this vendor to one conference call where all members and non-rmda members can call in and find out about this vendor and what they can do for them.

$1,000 Bronze Membership

This is our base membership. This base membership entitles the vendor to a table at the convention as well as speaking time at the convention. Additional vendor guest will be at a rate of $299 each.

Hope to See you at the Show
With Warmest Regards,

Andrew M Berman
Vendor Chair
RMDA Vice President
Andrew@MealsOnTheMove.com